He was tried in the Jeftake preference; the jury could not agree, they were discharged, and he was remanded to jail.-During his confluement, for some purpose, he and atildayis that he was the authorized agent of the Girard Insurance Company of Philadelphia. A second trial in our Criminal Court re-ulted in his acquittal.

John Kynock is again in trouble. On Wedneslay last, on the information of the Louisville prent of the Girard Insurance Company, that he had swindled it of $4,100, he was arrested in hael swindled it of $4,100, he was arrested in this edity. The next day, his counsel, Judge Joyes, mad a fruitless attempt to have his case Thomas II. Hent, adjudicated before Judge Johnson. The latter, for some reasons of which we are not advised, May, Throckmorton, Chas, F. Johnson, Chas, F. Johnson. continued the case. The accused was brought attocourt yesterday, and the case was investigated. A letter from the President of the Insurance Company to its agent in this city was John Brunger, John Brunger, introduced as evidence. In this letter it was stated that the accused, by filing an athldavit in the city of Buffalo that he was the agent of said unpany, caused it to pay $4,100. The Chief of Police shawed two telegraphic dispatches from the President of the company; one stating that powder manufactory, wanting to send some kegs an efficient of the facts in the case would be sent forthwith; the other, that as this was insuth ient evidence, one of its officers had left ou | boat J. The horses were in fine plight. Exchequor was grand. I liked him better than Planet, and Famey Washington is one of the noblest of her race. The fact is, the stable of the Major is worth going a long way to see. Though admirably governed, it got into a row a few days since. Exchequer, who is rather metricsome, "got on his high horse," and sounded his warrumpet on the very highest key. The whole stable were out taking a walk. The signal of hostilities caused very great excitement among these nobility of horse kind. Famy Wushington, not at all liking the thrilling mote of the cavalier, (horse-soldier, says Worcester,) broke from the control of her rider, banded him over in a clover field and put all the distance she could hetween herself and the midvil disturber of the promenade. Planet, taken by surprise, likewise took to his heels and disburthened blusself of his rider. Exchequer directed all his ire upon him, though his cleler brother, ashe is. The dying knight getting hemmed in by a concatenation of wagons, carts and other obstacles, was caught by his enraged pursuer, and pretty sharply bitten in several places, but not severely hurt. There was a world of excitement for a time. Steeds in the field and in the stable neighed wildly, and Bulffield seemed the battle-ground of a charge of cavalry. Summoned to the field, the Major, who is as active as a boy, led on his grooms well armed with siteks, resence Planet from his hirious antagonist, and puelled the fearful outbreak. THEATRE.-The Theatre reopens this evening for a short summer season, introducing, for the first time to a Louisville audience, Mr. Sothern, an actor reputed to possess great ability in his calling, and who makes his first appearan Manuel, in the romance of a Poor Young Man. Never having seen this gentleman, we cannot speak from personal knowledge of his histrionic powers. The press in other cities speak in high praise of his merit. We copy a notice from the Pittsburg Gazette, published in a city where Mr. Sothern has just concluded a successful engagement, merely adding that if the criticism is ju **Pittaburg Theatre.**—The "Poor Young Man" was produced last night with unequivocal success, and may be termed the hir of the season. Mr. Sothern's brief stay cut snort the "American Causin" in the full tide of success, for undoubtedly it would have run a full week to crowded houses. Honestly speaking we could not have credited to "great Dondreany's" power of so utterly divesting himself of "my lord's" pecullarities. His rendition of "Mannel" is one of the most elegant, retined and thished pieces of acting we ever witnessed. There are no rough points, no under or over acting. All is beautifully smooth and chastened. With the story of the play, (taken as it is from the celebrated French invel that lately made such a sensition in Poris), we presume our readers are agonainted. "Tis simple, natural, true, and goes direct to the heart of every auditor. The piece is lengthy—some 31, hours—but never for one instant does the interest flag. Mr. Sotheru's leap from the rained tower is literally fearful to behold, and he dashes at it with a reckless intrepidity that takes the house by storm. He hart himself rather severty in Cincinnati, striking his head as he passed through the stage. Our only wonder is, he does not break his neck every night.—[Pitts-burg Gazette, May 3]. success here may be counted on as certain :

It is a very common thing for parties in skiffs to pull out into the river to ride the waves of a passing steamer, and in this instance the pilot and the nate on watch, the captain's watch helps off, thought the young man was pulling closely to the boat for that purpose. Just as the skiff is neared the bow of the Strader, the young man made a sudden efforts cross ahead of the boat. The engines were stopped, but too late, and the skiff was run over and the parties drowned.

Another Mudder in New Orleans on Thesday morning. A police officer named Sary shot an unknown man supposed to be a German. The circumstances of the case, as related by the officer, he being the only witness, lead strongly to the belief that the shooting was a cool, premeditated murder. The afray took place between 4 and 5 o'clock in the norming. The statement of Sary, who has two shot wounds in his leg, is as follows:

A New Brinch or Business.—Three men have started for Pike's Peak with a party of diteen girls, to supply in part the destituti n of wives existing in that quarter. This announcement, says the Sandusky Register, is very suggestive. In the first place, it illustrates finely this principle: commerce of all kinds results from the citorts of one part of the world to supply the wants of another. In the next place, it indicates that men have learned that gold alone don't pay. Again: it satisfies us better than a 300 page novel, that women will always be found ready to do anything which will enable her to discharge her duties in life. Fifteen girls undertake a long journey with but three men to engineer them through, and all, to become the sives of the diggers; but the Idea cannot be amplified or embellished; we leave it to notice erowning suggestion, namely: the most nnselfish benevolence of the three men, who, for he sake of supplying "in part" the destitution of their suffering fellows, undertake to transpart each five girls. O, the labor and vexation, the confusion of bandboxes, traveling backets, fans, gloves, magazines, bonnets, oranges, andbut we pause. This is truly a "labor of love," and if we mistake not there will be others ready to rush into the field, excited by such daring precedents. But all goods and wares are subject to loss by transportation, and who knows that the fifteen girls will hold ont connt, when

One of the most intelligent ger the sen h the First Congressional District of Kentucky writes us under date of May 30th, that the people of Maybeld, Graves county, were addressed by their delegates to Charleston, Messrs. Williams and Morrow, on the 21th of that month, in regard to the proceedings of the National Conven- sional protection to slave property in the Territion. After the speaking, resolutions approving the course of their representatives were passed | We will print the resolutions, as adopted, with by acclamation; and one of the delegates having intimated that it would not be convenient for him to go to Baltimore, a resolution requesting him to return to the Convention was mani-mously adopted. We are glad to learn from our informant, that Judge Williams, the contleman referred to, will obey the wishes of his immedia ate constituency, and participate in the proceedings of the Convention. He is one of the ablest as he is among the most popular and Influential, of the delegates from the State; and his ervices could not now be dispensed with. trar corres pendent, whose means of obtaining correct infortion, as well as his good judgment nuwarped by prejudice or preference, may be relied upon.

Donglas could not get the Democratic strength of this (Graves) county, by from three hundred to four hundred votes, no matter upon what platform he might be placed, nor under what circumstances he judght be nominated. Indeed, the prejudice against him, and the opposition to his pet hobby, seem to have increased, smerth adjournment of the Charleston Convention.

A large Democratic meeting was held in New Castle, Delaware, a few days since, at which Messrs. Bayard 1 d Whitely made speeches, giving an account of their stewardship at Charle ton. After an exciting discussion of more than four bonr, their course was Indorsed. The County Convention and on the me day, and at the same place, and instructed Mesers. Bayard and Whitely to resume their seats at Baltimore, provided, in their opinion, the nationality of the Convention should be retored by the action of a sufficient portion of the regular delegations from the secoding Demo-eralle States. There was only one negative vote in the convention.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, a few days since ablished a report of the proceedings of a meet ig held in Independence, Kenton county, Ky . r solution topted at which endorsed the Enquirer sa could exponent of the Domogratic principles. The fact that none of the leading nen of the party in that country, whose names are household words throughout the State, were mentioned as having been present and particilated in the meeting, convinced us that the whole thing was begus. We find the fol-

ARMAGEMENTS FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The Baltimore American says that in view of the large cone surse of strangers that will be attracted to Baltimore while the Democratic Convention Is in session, and the fact that the largest hosts would belt to give adequate accommodation, it has been proposed to creet a suitable temporary building for the axpress accommodation of the Convention, and capable of seasing all who may wish to be present. To obtain the means for this purpose, a publicable cription is proposed. Each subscription of $5 will entitle the contributor to a tacket giving him a claim for a reserved seat in the building at all times while the Convention is in reason. From one thousand to one thousand flye himdred subscriptions of this kind will be required for the space of $1.

Dr. James Lull, of Poisdam, N. Y., writes, Aus. 11, 1859;
"I met with a man Giree weeks ago, who had slightly injured his finger two or three days before, which caused immediate pain, swelling, and violent fever. When I saw him, the pain and swelling had extended to hashoulder, depriving him of rest or sleep. The hand was turning dark colored and on the point of mortification. I got there at evening, and during the hight I gave him a whole box of pills, applied a yeast poutlier, and saved his life."
